

Major John Lane (2), Series I. English Lands

ID #	Date	Description	Comments
55	undated	Letter from John Dickinson to John Lane of Woburn New England	[need to transcribe this document]
56	November (?) 23, 1697/8	Letter to John Dickinson from John Lane	John Lane informs his father's agent in England that his father, Job Lane, is no longer living. Tries to untangle the complications that arose from Job's unrecognizable handwriting.
58	February 26, 1699	Letter from John Dickinson to John Lane	John Dickinson has sent John Lane a shipment of goods, but Lane has not acknowledged receiving them
59	May 11, 1699	Statement of accounts , John Lane to John Dickinson	Complete accounting statement for all the work John Dickinson has done for John Lane since 1691, including rents, taxes, expenses, Dickinson's salary, and goods shipped to Boston
62	June 10(?)1700	Letter , John Dickinson to John Lane	Dickinson reports briefly on the current state of business between them
61	June 25, 1700	Letters , John Lane to John Dickinson Senior and John Dickinson Junior	Lane authorizes Dickinson Junior to act as his agent; also places an order for more fabrics to be purchased with his rental income
60	August 22, 1701	Letter , John Lane to John Dickinson Senior	Lane is displeased with Dickinson's accounts and with the goods Dickinson has shipped to him
63	April 22, 1706	Letter , Joseph Dickinson to John Lane	Business matters. Dickinson has appointed Love and Metcalf, Merchants of London to receive Lane's rents. Also reports on a court case involving the Yorkshire property that Lane and other heirs hold jointly

64	April 25, 1706	Note to John Lane from John Love and Metcalfe	Lane's agents in London report that they will buy the merchandise he has ordered when they receive the money to pay for it
65	March 14, 1708	Letter , Joseph Dickinson to John Lane, with attached letter from John Lane & Metcalfe	Lane's agent in Yorkshire reports on his activities for the last four years. Complains that he never hears back from Lane. Also says that a lawsuit has been brought against the estate to demand payment of tithes, though it has always been exempt
66	April 9, 1711 1710	Statement , John Lane & Metcalf to Capt. John Lane	Statement of accounts, 1706-1711
